Trouble at Tombstone.

Very ominous are the tidings that the striking miners become more sulten. The following names have been added and uneasiness is manifest. On Friday one of the miners made very hoisterons demonstrations on the streets, and when approached by an officer he resented the interference. It led to a number of tackets sold is fifty-two.

There is much food for reflection in watching and studying the various phases of humanity under the conditions imposed. It is amusing to watch success, and to promise the same for scuffle, and the miner fell under a crushing blow from the butt of a revolver, his skull being fractured. At last accounts he was in a precarious condition and will probably die. This of it will end is not at all clear just now.
